Little Sloth hung from a tree looking at the world upside-down. But to her, it was right side up. Very slowly, she moved across the branch.
Her two toes touched something. "Ah! You scared me. I'm Toucan. I was having a nap." "I'm sorry," said Little Sloth.
"I wanted to eat the fruit over there," said Little Sloth. "I will get it for you," said Toucan. Toucan flew to the fruit and picked it off with his long beak.

“You are fast!” said Little Sloth. “I wouldn’t get there until tomorrow.” “Let’s be friends,” said Toucan. “We can look at the rainforest together.”
“I will race you to the tree over there,” said Toucan. Toucan flew fast. Little Sloth was still on the branch. “I might take two days,” she said.
“Are you kidding?” asked Toucan. “Why are you so slow?” “Mum says I’m faster than her,” said Little Sloth. “Why are you upside-down?”
“I’m not upside-down,” said Toucan. “You are.” “I’m the right way,” said Little Sloth. “I always see the world with the sky on the bottom.”
“You are funny, Little Sloth.” said Toucan. “I will fly to the trees and see what is going on.” Little Sloth waited. She yawned. It was time to go back to sleep.

Toucan flew back. "The monkeys are having a fruit fight," said Toucan. "Thank you for the bedtime story," said Little Sloth. She fell asleep for the next 20 hours.
